3. The National Commission on Teachers-I (NCT-I) has not recommended any specific pay scales for school teachers. However, the NCT-I has given an illustrative model of a composite running pay scale for school teachers including administrators and other education officers starting from Rs. 500 and going upto Rs. 3950. It has also recommended uniform pay scales for school teachers throughout the country. The composite running pay scale as recommended by NCT-I has not been favoured by the Govt. because this takes away motivation for better work and is against the over all policy of the Govt. The new pay scales take into consideration the report of the Fourth Central Pay Commission, the report of the NCT-I and the provisions of National Policy on Education. The Government do not have any proposal to further revise these pay scales.
